

NOMINATIONS FOR 2017 ADVISORY COUNCIL

July 27, 2016

TO: All Members, Present and Past Advisory Council Members

The Federal Home Loan Bank of Boston is now accepting nominations to fill three vacancies on its 2017 Advisory Council. The vacant seats will be filled by individuals actively involved in providing or promoting housing and community lending in Connecticut, Maine, and New Hampshire.

By regulation, the Bank is required to maintain an Advisory Council drawn from community and nonprofit organizations actively involved in providing or promoting low- and moderate-income housing in the district. Advisory Council members are appointed for staggered three-year terms. The council is comprised of at least two representatives from each of the six New England states along with at least two rotating seats that are filled from among the six executive directors of the state housing finance agencies or the six state departments of housing and/or community development.
